I, Nathaniel Chase of Buckfield in the County of Oxford, State of Maine, make this my last will & testament.

I give to my son Daniel Chase, the land on which his buildings now stand, being all that part of the lot that I purchased of French League, which lies on the North side of the road.

I give to my sons, Thomas & William, all the rest and residue of my real estate. Thomas is to have the North part of the farm whereon the buildings on which he now lives now stand, & William is to have the South part whereon the buildings are which he now lives, now stand; but the thirty acres which I conveyed to Nathaniel Morrill is to be considered as making up & coming out of William's half, & Thomas is to have once half of the farm as including that thirty acres— said bequests being to the said Daniel, Thomas & William, their & assigns forever.

I give & bequeath to my wife the right of use & occupation personally, that part of my dwelling house that we now occupy so long as she shall live— the above bequests to my sons being subject to this right here given to my wife.

I give also to my wife all the household furniture which she brought into the family at our marriage, & all that we have bought since— Also, I give her one cow, & four sheep to be kept equally by Thomas & William through the year— Also sufficient firewood, made ready for burning, to be used by Thomas & William in equal halves— Also a right to take what apples she may want for her own use from the orchard— these privileges to continue to her so long as she actually in the house above provided for there— I also give to my wife two hundred dollars, to be paid to her immediately after my death.
